

LC History Development Group	Induction and Development Group Meeting one: 30.09.2024
Induction	An induction session was held which provided: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An overview of senior cycle reform</li> <li>• The role of the NCCA</li> <li>• The role of the development group in terms of the development of LC History specification.</li> </ul>
Introductions	The group introduced themselves and their areas of expertise.
Overview of the Background paper and brief	An overview was given of the key aspects of the background paper and brief. The overview included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An overview of History in the curriculum</li> <li>• Insights from school visits</li> <li>• International trends in upper secondary History education</li> <li>• Issues for consideration</li> <li>• The brief for the development group</li> </ul>
Opening remarks by the Chair	The Chair gave an overview of the work of the development group and offered opening remarks on the development of the subject.
Aims and Rationale	An overview was given of the current syllabus aims. There was a discussion on the aims and rationale for the new specification.
Next Steps	Next meeting: October 24 th in Portlaoise.